22-28 of September, 2024, Croatia

Internship Areas: Education

The 7th conference, which combines online and offline delivery format, brings together researchers and practitioners (young and experienced) interested in strengthening scientific foundations in economics, law and education.

SEITE2024 is a scientific meeting aimed at solving problems in today's world through a combination of offline and web conferencing solutions.

Traditional concepts of scientific conferences are enhanced by modern communication technologies. SEITE2024 uses an innovative methodology to allow scientists, graduate students and postdoctoral fellows to share their knowledge and ideas offline and online. This makes scientific conferences more environmentally friendly as well as more economical for participants.

Meeting topics include:

Global politics and peace

Forecasting the consequences for the hotel and restaurant business

Economic and other consequences of the war in Ukraine for Europe and the world community

Forecast of health management

Software development

Case study on reliability analysis

Technology, economy and climate

Challenges for Education

Law

National and international security

International relations/European studies

Implications for the economy and cross-border relations

Multiculturalism and social integration

Kazakhstan and other countries in the world order system

Internship participants will be able to publish their research findings in the following publications:

1. SEITE2024 conference proceedings will be published in Conference Series Scopus. This series (labor) is indexed by the Scopus database for conferences (for an additional fee, optional)
2. Publication of a scientific article in a periodical professional publication of the European Union. The Journal of International Legal Communication (JILC) <http://jilc.uw.edu.pl/> is a scientific interdisciplinary journal founded by Warsaw State University (Poland). A scientific article published in JILC is considered to be a publication in a periodical scientific publication of a state which is a member of the Authority.

3. Collective monograph issued in Poland, ISBN, DOI "NEW WORLD LAW ORDER: INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATION AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC IMPACTS"

4. Free publication of the article in the journal "Tourism and Hospitality Management" (quartile of the journal in Scopus - Q4) provided that the article meets all stages of reviewing).
All submitted manuscripts are checked by Crossref (iThenticate) similarity checker.
