V INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL CONFERENCE
(INTERNATIONAL INTERNSHIP)

«NEW LAW AND ORDER OF (POST) COVID-19 WORLD:
SOCIO-ECONOMIC IMPACTS, TOURISM AND EDUCATION (SEITE2022)»

SEPTEMBER 19-20, 2022, CROATIA

The 5 th conference, which combines online and off-line formats, gathers researchers and practitioners (young and experienced) interested in strengthening academic bases in the spheres of economy, law, and education.

SEITE2022 is an academic meeting aimed at solving problems in the (POST) COVID-19 WORLD my means of combining off-line and web-conference forms.

Traditional concepts of scientific conferences are improved by modern communication technologies. SEITE2022 uses an innovative methodology to enable academicians, post-graduate students, and doctoral students to share their knowledge and ideas online and off-line. This makes scientific conferences more environmentally friendly and more cost-efficient for participants.

In the field of research on the new order of relations after COVID-19, there are many opinions today. However, everyone asks what the consequences of the pandemic will be and how the world order will look after COVID-19...

The world after COVID-19 is unlikely to return to the world as it was before. Many trends already observed in the world economy are accelerating as a result of the pandemic.

It especially concerns the digital economy along with digitalization spread such as remote work, telemedicine, delivery services, etc. All structural changes can also accelerate, including the tourist and hospitality industry. The implementation of these changes in all spheres of our life is an important and complex question.

The aim of the autumn meeting SEITE2022 is to gather academicians and business representatives interested in theoretical development and practical application of academic works.

Scope:

Global politics and the world after COVID-19
Forecasting of consequences for the hospitality industry
Economic and other consequences of the war in Ukraine for Europe and the global community
Health management forecasts
Software development
Cases in the reliability analysis
Technologies, economy, and climate
Challenges for education
Law
National and international security
International relations / European studies
Consequences for the economy and cross-border relations
Multiculturalism and social integration
Kazakhstan in the system of the world order after COVID-19

Working languages: Ukrainian, English, Russian, Croatian, Slovenian, Slovak, Polish.

The participants of the Conference will have an opportunity to publish the results of their research in the following journals:

1. 1. The best articles, selected by the academic board, will be invited to submit to the Tourism and Hospitality Management journal (ISSN 1847-3377), indexed in Scopus, Q3 (<https://thm.fthm.hr/>), free of charge.

Enhancing the scientific approach to research, the Journal publishes original articles along with empirical and theoretical studies, which promote the conceptual development of the tourist and hospitality industry management. The editors pay special attention to the articles focused on new trends, challenges, and events, as well as the application of new ideas having an impact on the tourist and hospitality industry. The general criteria for the acceptance of the articles are the scientific contribution, the rigorous research methodology, the relevant literature review, and good English.

2. The SEITE2022 Conference materials will be published in the Conference Series Scopus/WOS. This Series is indexed in Scopus/WOS for conferences. For further information, please send a request letter to the Organizing Committee of the Conference.

The conference will be organized in three main sections:

The development of the tourist and hospitality industry after COVID-19
Economic and other consequences of the war in Ukraine for Europe and the global community
Kazakhstan in the system of the world order after COVID-19

3. The publication of the academic article in the high-quality journal in the European Union. The Journal of International Legal Communication (JILC) (ISSN 2720-1643) is a multidisciplinary scientific journal, founded by the University of Warsaw (Poland). The article, published in the JILC is considered a publication in the journal of the country belonging to the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development and the European Union.

All submitted manuscripts are checked using Crossref Similarity Check (iThenticate).
